

PROBLEM STATEMENT

Once you've selected the right tool for news tracking in real time, its time to set it up. As our lives are very busy in these days. We often feel that we need more than 24 hours a day to cope up with everything we have in our busy schedule. Well, that's not possible, but we can reduce the time by changing the conventional method and make possible to read the news, just tell us the news that your interested in and get and quick peek for the day, By this you can read only what your interested with and relevant too. So you can save your time.

This app will help you to ask any query for all the information about, currencies, indices, commodities, future rate, etc. as an official websites
